

WEAK KNEES

POWER-POP AT THE PUNK SHOW
WELCOME TO THE WEAK KNEES PRESS KIT

BIOGRAPHY:

Weak Knees was born out of a mutual love for mid-2000s indie rock. The five-piece from Vancouver, BC strives to put on a high energy show—it's rock, it's post-punk, its power pop, all made possible by duelling guitar riffs, explosive drums and fleshy bass lines. Pair that with cheeky lyrics and infectious vocal melodies, and you've got yourself a pretty good time. Since their first EP release Dude, You Crying? in 2024, Weak Knees has played festivals including Sled Island and Unreal City, and has toured Canada from British Columbia to Ontario. At the end of 2025, Weak Knees recorded their first full length album with Jesse Gander at Rain City Recorders, and they're very excited to share it with the world.

The band blends the bite of punk, the brightness of power pop and the expansive fuzz of indie rock together to create a sound full of driving riffs, explosive drums and deep basslines. Embodying their lyrical frustration through infectious vocal melodies that alternately soar and snarl.

An absolute powerhouse of a set...When indie guitar rock hits, it's so cool. Bring back more cool bands.
